

Puget Sound Marine and Nearshore Grant Program
Improving Community Oil Spill Preparedness and Response in Regions Most At-Risk

RESULTS FROM RFP 12-0021 PROPOSAL EVALUATION
PROJECT TITLE	PROJECT PROPONENT	GRANT AWARD
Selected for Funding
Preparing COASST Post Spill	University of Washington	$ 57,661
Geographic Expansion of the Puget Sound Seabird Survey and Volunteer Training for Early On-Scene Reconnaissance	Seattle Audubon Society	$ 53,229
Swinomish Oil Spill Preparedness Project	Swinomish Indian Tribal Community	$ 35,003
Selected for Funding with Updated Scope
San Juan Marine Resources Committee Oil Spill Preparedness Proposal	Northwest Straits Foundation, San Juan County MRC and LIO	$ 60,000
Not Selected for Funding
Kelp Ecosystem Vulnerabilities to Oil Spills: Baseline Information for Protecting Key Resources in the Strait of Juan de Fuca	Coastal Watershed Institute, University of Washington	$ 60,000
Marine Resources Committees Regional Oil Spill Preparedness Proposal	Northwest Straits Foundation, San Juan County MRC and LIO	$ 60,000
Engaging Community Volunteers in Local Oil Spill Preparedness	Washington State University, WSU Island County Extension	$ 55,786
Strait Action Area – Oil Spill Preparedness Proposal	Northwest Maritime Center, Makah Tribe Office of Marine Affairs, Strait Ecosystem Recovery Network Local Integrating Organization	$ 60,000
Improving Local Organizations Response Capabilities through Implementation of Local Preparedness and Contingency Plans	Seattle Audubon Society	$ 47,768