Mandatory Digger Registration

All diggers are required to register with a certified razor clam dealer to participate in the fishery. To register, diggers should directly contact a dealer certified by the Department of Health (WDOH) and arrange to be included on the dealer's list of registered diggers. For a current list of certified dealers, contact the Department of Health at (360) 236-3352 or the Department of Fish and Wildlife office at (360) 665-4166. Once a dealer(s) has agreed to register you with their company, they will submit your name to Licensing at WDFW. There is no fee to register. WDFW Licensing will only sell commercial razor clam licenses to those individuals whose names appear on the list. If you apply by mail, your license will not be issued until your name has been received. If you plan to purchase a license in person, first call WDFW Licensing at (360) 902-2464 to confirm that WDFW has your name registered. All commercial diggers must obtain certification tags from the buyer(s) they are registered with prior to harvesting any clams.

DNR Right-of-Entry (ROE) authorization. DNR is requiring a Right of Entry for the 2023 commercial razor clam season. For more information on how to acquire, call (360) 870-5678 or visit www.dnr.wa.gov/programs-and-services/aquatics/shellfish/razor-clams.

WDOH Shellfish Certification Tags All containers of razor clams must be tagged at the time of harvest regardless of registration status. Diggers will have to make sure they obtain certification tags from the company they plan on delivering to before they dig their catch. Untagged buckets of clams are subject to seizure. For questions regarding razor clam certification contact (360) 236-3352.

Transport Tickets If you intend to sell clams at some location other than the point of landing a "transport ticket" must be filled out and kept with the clams until the point of sale. Transport tickets are available through WDFW Licensing at Olympia (360) 902-2464.

Call the Coastal Commercial Razor Clam Hotline (360) 249-4628 ext. 278 for updates and/or opening/closing dates.
